Hyannis, Mass, January 31, 2010 - The American Red Cross, Cape Cod and Islands Chapter, is pleased to announce that members of the Provincetown Police Department, Ryan Peters, Geoffrey Pavao and Carrie Lopes will be honored as Law Enforcement Heroes at its 8th Annual Heroes Breakfast. Tickets and sponsorships are available via (508) 775-1540 ext. 21, via email at heroes@cciredcross.org or online at www.cciredcross.org on Thursday, March 4, 2010 at the Resort and Conference Center at Hyannis, MA from 7:00-9:00 A.M. Tickets and sponsorships are available via (508) 775-1540, via email at heroes@cciredcross.org or online at www.cciredcross.org

Sergeant Carrie Lopes, Patrolman Ryan F. Peters and Patrolman Geoffrey F. Pavao of the Provincetown Police Department responded to a street fight that turned into a highly charged situation. The person who was arrested was ultimately charged with assault and battery with a dangerous weapon, Assault and Battery to intimidate, wanton destruction of property, disorderly conduct, Assault and Battery on a police officer, resisting arrest and civil rights violation. He was found guilty of all charges.

Throughout the altercation, arrest and booking the individual was extremely physically and verbally abusive to the police, his victim and the crowd which had gathered. The responding officers maintained a superior level of professionalism and integrity throughout the arrest and subsequent investigation. Their actions on a busy summer night in Provincetown deserve recognition.

The Red Cross touches lives in our community every day through programs and services such as disaster relief and health and safety training. As an organization committed to helping the community, the Red Cross is honored to salute individuals who are making a difference through their actions.

Tickets are available online at cciredcross.org or can be obtained by calling toll-free (508) 775-1540, ext. 21. Different levels of sponsorship are also available.
