American Red Cross will be “Cause of the Month” at Not Your Average Joe's Restaurant in Hyannis

Hyannis, Mass, January 13, 2010 – Not Your Average Joe's restaurant in Hyannis has chosen the American Red Cross, Cape Cod and Islands Chapter as its “Not Your Average Cause” for the month of January. On Tuesdays January 12th, 19th, 26th and Monday, January 18th, the restaurant will donate 15% of all purchases made by American Red Cross supporters to the chapter.

American Red Cross supporters identify themselves to servers with Not Your Average Cause certificates which will be available at the Chapter House and copies will also be available at the door of the restaurant. They can also be downloaded from the web at www.cciredcross.org

Bruce Randon, General Manager of Not Your Average Joe's says, “We chose The American Red Cross because we believe in its value to our community and want to contribute to its success.”

The American Red Cross strives to train communities and individuals to be prepared for any disaster. The Red Cross offers multiple health and safety courses, including First Aid and CPR and AED.

The American Red Cross has been the leader in disaster relief support and health and safety training for more than 90 years. More information on the Cape Cod and Islands chapter training, volunteering or donating can be found at the website, cciredcross.org, by calling the Hyannis office at (508) 775-1540 or by writing to 286 South Street, Hyannis, MA 02601.
