Wendy's of Cape Cod Raises Funds to Support Red Cross Haiti Relief Efforts

Hyannis, MA, March 30th, 2010- Wendy's of Cape Cod supported the Red Cross Haiti Relief Efforts throughout the months of January and February, resulting in $532.69

All contributions collected in the Wendy's of Cape Cod have already been forwarded to the American Red Cross, Cape Cod and Islands Chapter in Hyannis. The funds do not stay with the local chapter, but are forwarded to the Red Cross International Relief Efforts to support the Haiti Earthquake victims.

All disaster relief services are free to those who need it but the American Red Cross receives no government funding for its disaster relief activities. For more information about Red Cross International Relief efforts, which are updated on a regular basis, go to www.redcross.org.

If you are interested in organizing small fundraisers to support local, national or international disaster relief, please call the American Red Cross Cape Cod and Islands Chapter at (508) 775-1540, write to 286 South Street, Hyannis, MA 02601, email info@cciredcross.org or go online to the website, www.cciredcross.org.
