Cape Cod and Islands Chapter Red Cross organizes Second Annual “Red Cross Open” Charity Golf Tournament on September 11th, 2009

Hyannis, MA, August 13, 2009– The American Red Cross, Cape Cod and Islands Chapter will organize its second annual “Red Cross Open” charity golf tournament on September 11, 2009 at The Club at Yarmouth Port on Kings Way in Yarmouth Port. The tournament will take place on the National Day of Service in honor of the First Responders, those who serve and all those who volunteer and support the Red Cross.

The golf tournament will feature several specials, such as great raffle and auction items and wonderful prizes for the winners. Also, Club at Yarmouth Port Golf pros Bob and Lisanne Miller will be the Pros at a Hole to help you with an even better chance of winning.

The Chapter is looking for several more foursomes, sponsors as well as raffle and auction items. For more information, call (508) 775-1540 ext. 21 or go to capecodandislandsredcross.org

The schedule of the day is as follows:

- Registration at 12:00 noon
- Putting contest starts
- Shot gun start at 1:00 pm
- Cocktails & cash bar and hors d’oeuvres at 4:30 pm
- Dinner buffet at Ardeo Grille at Kings Way and awards ceremony follows

Prizes will be awarded in the following categories: Top three Teams, 50-50 Hole, Closest to the Pin, Closest to the Line, Hole in One, Putting.

Thanks to the support of sponsors and donors of raffle and auction items all proceeds of this golf tournament will benefit the Chapter’s programs. Donations are tax-deductible within the extent of the law.

Individual golfers and foursomes accepted. Foursomes can be arranged. Please wear non-metal spikes and enjoy the course. Shotgun start, scramble format. Scoring is based on best score of the foursome.

The entry fee includes greens fees, carts, hors d’oeuvres and buffet dinner at Ardeo Grille at Kings Way, right off the golf club. Individual golfers are $99 and foursome fees are $350. Not a golfer? Join us for cocktail time and dinner for $25.
