American Red Cross Recognizes Community Supporters at Annual meeting

Hyannis, Mass, July 3, 2008 – The American Red Cross, Cape Cod and Islands Chapter, proudly recognized the community support efforts of the following at its annual meeting held in June.

Barnstable County Emergency Management Director Sean O'Brien from xxx?? received the 2008 Community Leadership Achievement Award. Sean has made a measurable difference by improving people's lives on Cape Cod and the Islands through exceptional community leadership, expanding collaboration between both agencies: the American Red Cross Chapter and Barnstable County Emergency Management as well as challenging the community to participate in solving significant problems in significant ways.

More information about the Cape Cod and Islands Chapter, disaster preparedness, training classes and tips can be viewed on the Chapter's web site: www.capecodandislandsredcross.org or can be obtained by calling toll-free (508) 775-1540.
