Cape Cod and Islands Chapter Introduces New Board Member Steven Lowell

Hyannis, Mass., August 12, 2009 — The American Red Cross, Cape Cod and Islands Chapter is pleased to introduce new board member, Steven Lowell of Cape Cod Cooperative Bank, based in Hyannis.

Steven says, “The Cape Cod and Islands Red Cross provides many emergency services for people in need. I am a longtime admirer of the organization, dating back to my involvement with the United Way. As a community banker I have always felt it is important to give back to the community in which I work and have sought out organizations that allow me to do that in a meaningful way.”

Steve joined the Cape Cod Cooperative Bank in 1995, where he currently serves as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Prior to joining the Bank, he held management positions at Mercantile Bank and Trust in Boston, Milford Savings Bank and Union Warren Savings Bank, Boston. Steve is a graduate of the National School of Finance and Management at Fairfield University. He is a past Chairman of the Board of Selectmen in the town of Upton having served many years on the Finance Committee. He is also a past State President of the Banker’s Educational Forum, and presently a member of the Massachusetts Bankers Association Community Bank Committee.

Steve is a past Director of the Cape and Islands United Way, where he served terms as Treasurer and Chairman. He is a long time Director of the YMCA Cape Cod, where he currently serves as President of the Board. He is also a past Director of the Consumer Assistance Council and the Cape Cod Community Media Center.
